Good Morning Sir-

According to our records, you contacted our organization on October 1, 2018 to inform us of your warrant service. According to our response to you, we took your information was removed on 10/1/2018 at 9:49am.

What you saw on the 19th were Google search results. When you google a name or photograph and "cookies" are enabled on your search engine, previous information about your previous visit. In other words, your individual browser remembers what you'd previously visited online. If you would have clicked on I

Keep in mind, cookies are enabled on all devices until the user turns them off. Your search using "Justin Lamar Jones" would look different than anyone else

We really want you to feel satisfied that we've done everything we could to help with your request on October 1st. I've included screenshots of our site history screenshot of the site that had your picture and information on it immediately after it was removed. You'll see the 404 is not found.

I've also included our site's activity on 19th, as well, to show you we did not add your information to our site again. "5K Ban" is 5K Banner and that is when I

I understand your frustration with this and how much you want this to be left in the past. I can assure you we took your information off the internet immediately on our end and we certainly wish you all the best going forward. If there is anything else we can do to help you, please let us know.

Thank you very much for contacting us. We promise to continue working with you until you are satisfied.

I'm contacting this organization again with my concerns and some questions regarding why your organization thought it was appropriate to slander my name on the internet. Your organization has caused great harm to me financially because of this. This isn't just an accident, I don't want to hear the bullcrap. Someone contacting the person or individual responsible for such a childish act, especially given that I proof on numerous occasions that I requested this to be removed. I included very specific requests. I was informed that it didn't come down till 10-26-2018. I strongly believe this act of ignorance has been intentional. Warrants were served in February, so for 9 months you mean to tell me it took for that to come down? I await such a ridiculous response.
